OFFICE OF THE PRIVATE SECRETARY TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY.

NOTIFICATIONS.

New Delhi, the 25th February 1943.

* * * * *

No. 71-H.—His Excellency the Viceroy has been pleased to award the Indian Police Medal to the following officer:—

Babu Ram Singh, Driver Constable No. 756, Chittagong District.—On the 23rd January 1943, while Driver Constable Ram Singh was at Double Moorings police-station, Chittagong, a Japanese air raid occurred and the area adjacent to the police-station was heavily bombed. Most of the Police buildings were wrecked, two constables were killed and 5 other members of the Station staff were severely injured. Constable Ram Singh, although injured with splinters and shaken by blast, promptly collected the wounded men, and drove them in his lorry to the Police Lines for treatment. There is reason to believe that the lorry was hit by machine gun bullets en route, and at any rate the raid was still continuing while the journey was in progress. The whole area was enveloped in smoke from numerous fires, and Constable Ram Singh, who collapsed on arrival at the Police Lines, showed great gallantry in removing from danger a number of men whose lives might well have been lost if they had been left unattended where they had fallen.

This award is made for gallantry under regulation (d)(i) of the Regulations governing the grant of the Indian Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

(a) the space beneath the platform of the privy or urinal shall be of such dimensions as to admit of a movable receptacle for sewage, of a capacity not exceeding two cubic feet, being placed and fitted beneath the platform in such manner and position as will effectually prevent the deposit, otherwise than in such receptacle, of any sewage falling or thrown through the aperture in the platform;

(b) the privy or urinal shall be so constructed as to afford adequate access to the said space for the purpose of cleansing it and of placing therein, and removing therefrom, a proper receptacle for sewage;

(c) the said receptacle shall be water-tight, and shall be made of metal, well-tarred earthenware or glazed stoneware, and shall be of such construction and shape as the Chairman may consider suitable;

(d) the door of the opening for the insertion and removal of the said receptacle shall be so made as completely to cover the said opening.

II.

Closed cess-pools of household septic tanks and soak pits.

1. When any person intends to instal a privy or urinal on the water-carriage system, and there is no municipal underground sewerage system with which it may be connected, he may instal such privy or urinal on the condition that he provides a covered septic tank, and a soak pit or a disposal gallery in conformity with the provisions of by-law 37.

2. A covered septic tank shall be constructed in accordance with the type design to be kept at the municipal office, together with means for disposal of the effluent from the septic tank.

3. The septic tank shall be constructed of water-tight masonry, concrete, or earthenware, and shall have a capacity of not less than two cubit feet per user, the number of users being taken as the maximum number of persons who will ordinarily use the privy or urinal connected to the septic tank.

4. The means for disposal of the effluent of the septic tank shall consist of either—

(a) a covered soak pit or well, the bottom of which shall be carried down to a porous sandy stratum, in any case to a depth of not less than two feet below the lowest subsoil water level. Soak pits may be lined or unlined, depending on the nature of the upper strata. An unlined soak pit shall be between eighteen inches and two feet in diameter, and the quantity of liquid run into it shall not be more than one hundred gallons per day. A lined soak pit or well shall have a horizontal cross sectional area of not less than one square foot for every twenty-five gallons of water discharged into it daily; or (b) a disposal gallery, which shall consist of pipes of not less than four inches diameter, laid open jointed in a bed of broken stone or brick at a depth of about fifteen inches below ground and a gradient of not less than two inches per one hundred feet. The length of gallery shall be not less than a figure calculated at the rate of five feet per user when laid in porous sandy subsoil. The gallery may be in one line, or in parallel lines the distance between which is not less than six feet. When laid in heavy subsoil, the length of gallery shall be calculated at ten feet per user, and it shall be laid in two or three separate lengths fed from a junction manhole so arranged that one or more lengths can be cut off for rest.

Soak pits and disposal galleries shall be constructed in accordance with the type-plans to be kept at the municipal office.

5. The sewers connecting from the privies or urinals to the septic tanks shall be constructed with stoneware pipes jointed with cement mortar.

6. The minimum quantity of water which shall be provided for the flushing of the water-closets and urinals is five gallons per user per day.

7. No septic tank, soak pit, or disposal gallery shall be constructed in ground which is liable to flood in the rainy season, and no soak pit or gallery shall be constructed within one hundred feet (horizontal distance) from any common well or tube well which is used as a source of drinking water-supply. The general level of the pipes of a disposal gallery shall not be lower than that of the subsoil water level in the rainy season.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 543L.A.—3rd March, 1943.—It is hereby notified for general information that at the meeting of the Bengal Legislative Assembly held on 2nd March, 1943, a motion was carried that the Calcutta and Suburban Police (Amendment) Bill, 1942, be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon by 25th March, 1943. Expressions of opinion by public bodies or by individuals interested in the said Bill, which is republished together with its Statement of Objects and Reasons in this Gazette, should be sent so as to reach the undersigned before that date.

K. ALI AFZAL,
Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Assembly.

THE CALCUTTA AND SUBURBAN POLICE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1942.

further to amend the Calcutta Police Act, 1866, and the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Calcutta Police Act, 1866, and the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866, for the purpose and in the manner hereinafter appearing; Ben. Act IV of 1866. Ben. Act II of 1866.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Calcutta and Suburban Police (Amendment) Act, 1942.

Insertion of new section 61A in Bengal Act IV of 1866.

2. After section 61 of the Calcutta Police Act, 1866, the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

"61A. (1) With the previous sanction of the Provincial Government, the Commissioner of Police may, from time to time, prescribe the types of vehicles which shall not be driven or used in streets or public places.

Power of Commissioner to prohibit the use of the driving of certain types of vehicles in streets or public places.

(2) Whoever uses or drives in a street or public place a vehicle of a type the use or driving of which has been prohibited under sub-section (1) shall be liable to fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and the vehicle in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be forfeited to the Crown."

Insertion of new section 38A in Bengal Act II of 1866.

3. After section 38 of the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866, the following section shall be inserted, namely :—

"38A. (1) With the previous sanction of the Provincial Government, the Commissioner of Police may, from time to time, prescribe the types of vehicles which shall not be driven or used in streets or public places.

Power of Commissioner to prohibit the use or the driving of certain types of vehicles in streets or public places.

(2) Whoever uses or drives in a street or public place a vehicle of a type the use or driving of which has been prohibited under sub-section (1) shall be liable to fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and the vehicle in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be forfeited to the Crown."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The expediency of prohibiting the use of cycle-rickshaws in Calcutta, where they constitute a serious danger in the crowded streets and would be more dangerous in conditions of black-out at night-time, has revealed a lacuna in the Calcutta Police Act, 1866 (Bengal Act IV of 1866) and the Calcutta Suburban Police Act, 1866 (Bengal Act II of 1866). Each of these Acts contains provisions for regulating but no provision for prohibiting the use of any particular type of vehicle. The present Bill aims at making this necessary provision.

"Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to a judge of the Chief Court exercising the jurisdiction of the Chief Court as the principal criminal Court of original jurisdiction for the sessions division of Karachi.";

(b) section 13 shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

At the instance of the Bombay High Court the Bombay Government proposed to the Central Government in May, 1941, that legislation should be undertaken to provide for a restricted right of appeal in criminal cases against the decisions of a High Court exercising its original jurisdiction, on the lines contained in the Criminal Appeal Act, 1907 (7 Edw. 7, c. 23).

The Letters Patent of the various High Courts prohibit appeals in such cases, but provide a restricted power of review, corresponding to that embodied in section 434 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. The Code of Criminal Procedure provides by section 449, enacted in 1923 to implement a recommendation in the Report of the Racial Distinctions Committee, for appeals from decisions in cases tried before a High Court by a jury under the special provisions of Chapter XXXIII, but contains no provision for appeals in similar trials not held under that Chapter.

This absence of any general provision for appeals from the decisions of a High Court exercising original criminal jurisdiction is perhaps attributable to the state of English law on the subject when the Letters Patent were issued long before the passing of the Criminal Appeal Act, 1907. Provincial Governments and High Courts, when consulted upon the Bombay Government's proposal, were unanimously in favour of amending the law in the direction indicated.

This Bill is designed to give effect to the conclusions which have emerged from a collation of the opinions expressed by the various authorities consulted.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 10th February, 1943:—

L. A. BILL No. 3 OF 1943.

A Bill further to amend the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, and the Post Office Cash Certificates Act, 1917.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, and the Post Office Cash Certificates Act, 1917, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; V of 1873. XVIII of 1917.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Government Savings Banks (Amendment) Act, 1943.

Substitution of new section for section 4, Act V of 1873.

2. For section 4 of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, the following section shall be substituted, namely:— V of 1873.

Payment on death of depsoitor.

"4. If a depositor dies and probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate or a succession certificate granted under the Indian Succession Act, 1925, is not within three months of the death of the depositor produced to the Secretary of the Government Savings Bank in which the deposit is, then— XXXIX of 1925.

(a) if the deposit does not exceed five thousand rupees, the Secretary may pay the same to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased, and

(b) within the aforesaid limit of five thousand rupees, any officer employed in the management of a Government Savings Bank who is empowered in this behalf by a general or special order of the Central Government may, to the extent to which he is empowered by such order and subject to any general or special orders of the Secretary in this behalf, pay the deposit to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate."

Amendment of section 3, Act XVIII of 1917.

3. In sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Post Office Cash Certificates Act, 1917, for the words and figures "sections 4 and 8" the word and figure "section 8" shall be substituted. XVIII of 1917.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 4 of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, restricts cases in which the Secretary, that is to say, the Postmaster-General for the area in which the Savings Bank is situate, may authorise the payment of a deposit where probate of the will of the deceased depositor or letters of administration are not produced, to those cases in which the deposit does not exceed three thousand rupees. The corresponding provision of Act XVIII of 1917, applicable to Post Office cash certificates, fixes the limit at five thousand rupees. The Bill provides that this higher figure shall henceforth be the limit for deposits in Government Savings Banks also.

2. Other officers employed in the management of a Government Savings Bank can, under the law as it stands, be empowered to pay deposits in such circumstances only where the deposit does not exceed one hundred rupees. The Bill proposes to extend this limit to five thousand rupees, with a view to accelerating the disposal of claims to deposits of deceased depositors.

3. The revision of section 4 of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, renders necessary a consequential amendment of section 3 of the Post Office Cash Certificates Act, 1917.

Second Forecast of the Spring Oilseed Crops, 1942-43.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1940-41, the area under linseed in Bengal has represented some 3·6 per cent. and that of rape and mustard 12·4 per cent. of the total area under these crops in India.)

Character of the season.—Since the submission of the first forecast in December last the weather and its effect on the growth of the crops have been, on the whole, favourable although heavy showers in January have caused damage to a little extent at places. Damage due to insect-pests has also been reported from a few districts. The present condition of the crop is fair.

Area sown.—Oilseeds are chiefly grown in the Dacca, Rajshahi and Presidency Divisions. In the other two divisions the cultivation is not extensive. The total area under these crops (excepting sesamum for which separate forecasts are issued) is returned at 1,083,400 acres this year against 945,700 both in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—From the District Officers estimates the average outturn of the different oilseed crops for the province works out at 74 per cent. of the normal against 79 and 77 per cent. reported respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

M. CARBERY,
Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Every vessel on entering the channel and before passing the gate at either end or even when entering the channel from a side khal between the gates shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the tolls payable; in case of any reasonable doubt arising, a vessel may be measured again by any person appointed by the union board of Nailtala, on this behalf.

3. Vessels for the purpose of the determination of maundage shall be divided into two classes as below:—

Class I.—To include all vessels of the types of country boats, including saltees and hapors (fish cages), house boats, kosh boats, green boats, etc.

Class II.—To include steam boats, motor boats, flats and barges and other square built vessels.

4. The maundage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purpose of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

Class I.

A. The product of one quarter the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

B. The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C. The maundage on which the amount of tolls is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 12½ maunds, any remainder of less than 12½ maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder or less than 50 maunds.

D. Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem of stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

Class II.

For vessels of Class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of Class I shall be increased by one half. For vessels of the class above 5,000 maunds measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers and motor boats, the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance for engine spare.

For vessels of Class II which are furnished with reliable way bills, the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way bills or in the case of steamers, the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be), be taken as the maundage on which tolls will be charged.

5. After the measurement the person in charge of the vessel shall be provided with a slip showing the maundage to be charged, which must be presented at the toll office where he will be provided with a ticket, after payment of toll, which will permit the vessel to pass the gate or proceed through the channel.

6. Every ticket shall have entered on it the name of the serang, manjhee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage, the cargo, the amount of toll charged and number of days for which the ticket remains current.

7. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll office before a vessel is permitted to proceed.

8. The ticket must be kept on board the vessel and in possession of the person in charge of the vessel and must be produced for inspection when demanded by the person authorised to collect toll, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rules 4 and 13 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provision of section 9 of the Act.

9. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a fee equal to one quarter of the total tollage, subject to a minimum fee of one anna per ticket.

10. All vessels, whether the property of Government, district board, other local bodies or of private persons, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under these rules by a resolution passed by the union board of Nailtala from time to time.

11. The channel may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it on seven days' notice of the intention so to close it being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the channel may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

12. No ratts exceeding 60 feet in length and 30 feet in breadth shall be permitted to enter the channel.

13. The rates of toll shall be as follows:—

(1) On all vessels, empty or laden, per 100 maunds—Eight annas.

(2) On all vessels, empty or laden, for 12½ maunds or less—One anna.

(3) On rafts of bamboos, grass, timber, etc., not exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth—Four annas each raft.

Tolls will be levied at Rambhadra and Charkhola.

14. For boats frequently using the channel such boats carrying passengers, grass or perishable articles monthly tickets will be issued at ten times the ordinary toll.

15. Every vessel which has paid toll shall be allowed to remain in the channel for three days inclusive of the days of entry into and leaving the channel. A vessel remaining in any part of the channel longer than three days shall be charged demurrage equal to one half of the toll for each day in excess of three days. No vessel shall be permitted to remain in the channel for more than one month: Provided that this rule shall not apply to vessels holding monthly tickets under rule 14, which may remain in the channel for more than three days without payment of demurrage but not for more than one month at a time.

16. No vessel carrying exclusively police officers or servants, soldiers and officers of the British Army, post mail runners, officers of the Irrigation Department on duty, officers and servants of the toll office for the channel referred to in these rules while on duty, or the vessels of such other persons as may be exempted by a resolution of the union board of Nailtala shall be liable for toll in the channel.

17. Any matter relating to the mode of collection of tolls and other relevant points not provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the union board of Nailtala at a meeting and shall be subject to the approval of the Provincial Government.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Council; and Bills published before introduction in that Council

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 458L.C.—13th March 1943.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, 1937, sponsored by Mr. Humayun Kabir, M.L.C., with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

S. K. D. GUPTA,
Secy. to the Bengal Legis. Council.

Report of the Select Committee on the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, 1937.

(As introduced in the Council by Mr. Humayun Kabir, M.L.C.)

We, the members of the Select Committee to which the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Bill, 1937, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 6th March, 1942, have the honour to submit this our final report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. Matters recommended by us to be omitted have been printed in italics and enclosed in square brackets, and all new matters recommended to be inserted have been underlined.

The Committee met on the 9th July, 1942, and concluded their sitting on the 16th July, 1942.

The Bill has not been altered by our recommendations to an extent requiring republication.

The changes made by us are detailed below.

Long title.—We have made a slight drafting change in the long title.

Preamble.—As we have omitted the provisions relating to adult franchise in the Bill as well as Part II thereof, consequential changes in the Preamble are necessary and we have accordingly recommended certain amendments thereto.

Clause 1.—We have changed the year from 1937 to 1942 in sub-clause (1) and have made certain other changes which are of drafting nature. We have also omitted the proviso to this clause as we consider it desirable to leave the question of enforcement of the provisions of this Bill to the discretion of the Provincial Government.

New clause 1A.—We have inserted this new clause in order to define the expressions "union board areas" and "non-union board areas" as appearing in the several clauses of this Bill.

Clause 2.—We are of opinion that the principle of nomination should be abolished subject to creation of special constituencies for industrial areas, and appointment of certain ex-officio advisory members without any right of vote. We also consider it desirable that the number of such advisory members should not exceed one-sixth of the total number of elected members. We are also of opinion that provision should be made for election, instead of nomination as has hitherto been done, of members of a district board representing areas where there are no local boards in a district or in any part thereof. We have accordingly redrafted this clause incorporating therein the above provisions so far as the district boards are concerned, and have also made certain other consequential amendments that are necessary as a result thereof.

New clause 2A.—We have added this new clause in order to make special provisions in regard to industrial areas as decided by us.

New clause 2B.—We consider it desirable that provision for the appointment of advisory members in local boards also should be made. We are also of opinion that the number of such advisory members should not be more than one-sixth of the total number of elected members as in the case of district boards. We have accordingly added this new clause.

Clause 3.—We are of opinion that the principle of adult franchise should not be accepted at the present time as it would involve heavy expenditure and various other difficulties on the part of the Government. We have accordingly redrafted this clause making certain consequential changes and omitting the portions referring to adult franchise.

Clause 4.—We have made certain changes in this clause which are purely of drafting nature.

Clause 5.—As a result of our insertion of clause 2B in the Bill making provision for the appointment of advisory members in the local boards, provisions similar to that of sub-clause (5) of the proposed clause 2 regarding the district boards are also necessary to be made with regard to the local boards as well. We have accordingly amended this clause which may be taken as consequential.

Clause 6.—We consider it necessary that some provision should be made for ascertaining the proportionate number of advisory members to be appointed either in the district boards or in the local boards under paragraph (b) of clause 2(1)(a) or under the proposed section 8(b) of clause 2B, if the total number of elected members in the said boards is not a multiple of six. We have accordingly amended this clause making provision for the same.

Clause 7.—We have redrafted this clause omitting therefrom all provisions referring to adult franchise and have made certain amendments which are consequential upon the omission of the reference to districts mentioned in the Third Schedule of the Act in section 9 of the said Act, by clause 3 of the Bill.

New clause 7A.—As the result of our insertion of the new clause 13E which omits from the Act the Third Schedule, the existing section 14 of the said Act becomes quite unnecessary. We have therefore added this new clause repealing the said section 14.

Clause 8.—We have made slight drafting alterations in this clause.

New clause 8A.—In view of the abolition of nomination and the provision for the appointment of advisory members without any right of vote in the district boards and local boards as provided for in clauses 2, 2B and 5 of the Bill, certain consequential changes are necessary in section 17A of the Act. We have accordingly inserted this new clause incorporating those amendments therein.

Clause 9.—We consider that in the case of failure of an election for filling a casual vacancy of an elected member of a district board or local board within the time prescribed by the rules, the vacancy should be filled up by the appointment of a new member by the Provincial Government instead of by the Commissioner as appearing in section 19 of the Act, as we think that such cases would be very scarce and it would not be inconvenient for the Provincial Government to deal with them. We are also of opinion that similar power should be given to the Provincial Government in case of the advisory members of a district board or a local board. We have accordingly replaced the existing clause 9 by a newly drafted clause incorporating therein all the provisions mentioned above.

Clause 10.—We have made provisions in this Bill for the appointment of ex-officio advisory members and as such section 19A of the Act should be retained. We have accordingly omitted this clause.

Clauses 11 and 12.—We consider that the first paragraph of section 22 of the Act which provides for the appointment of the chairman of the district board by the Provincial Government or the election of such chairman in case where the Provincial Government so directs should be left unaltered as the power to appoint a chairman is seldom exercised by the Provincial Government. We are also of opinion that a Public Prosecutor or a Government Pleader who are generally busy with their professional work would not be in a position to find sufficient time to devote to the onerous duties of the chairman or the vice-chairman of a district board upon which the welfare of the whole district rests. We have consequently combined the existing clauses 11 and 12 of the Bill and renumbered it as clause 11 providing therein for the exclusion of a Public Prosecutor or a Government Pleader from being eligible for appointment or election as chairman or vice-chairman of a district board. We are also of opinion that it would not be advisable to include the other persons mentioned in clauses 12 and 13 of the Bill as being ineligible for being appointed or elected as chairman or vice-chairman of a district board and we have accordingly omitted those portions from the Bill. We also consider it desirable that a definition of "Government Pleader" and "Public Prosecutor" should be added and we have accordingly inserted an explanation to this clause.

Clause 13.—We consider it desirable that the right and privilege of having access to the deliberations of the meetings of the district board should be limited to the press representatives only, subject to the rules to be framed by the Provincial Government in this behalf. We also think it proper that if two-thirds of the elected members present at a meeting decide to keep out the press from the discussion of any particular matter at any meeting, they should be entitled to discuss that matter in private at that meeting. We have accordingly redrafted this clause giving effect to the provisions mentioned above.

Clause 13A.—We have omitted this clause as being unnecessary.

New clauses 13B, 13C and 13D.—In view of the abolition of nomination and other amendments made in the Bill, certain consequential and drafting changes are necessary to be made in sections 36D, 50, 82, 88A and 138 of the said Act and we have accordingly inserted these new clauses incorporating therein all the necessary consequential and drafting changes.

New clause 13E.—In view of the omission of the references in sections 9, 11 and 13 of the Act to the Third Schedule and the repeal of sections 14 and 15 of the Act which previously existed and also referred to the said Schedule, this Schedule is unnecessary and requires to be omitted altogether. We have accordingly inserted this new clause.

New clause 13F.—In view of the amendments made by us in section 7 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act, 1885, certain consequential changes are also necessary to be made in section 5 of the Bengal Local Self-Government (Amendment) Act, 1936, which also seeks to amend the same section 7 of the original Act. We have therefore inserted this new clause in order to make section 5 of the amending Act XIV of 1936 consistent with the amendments made by us in clause 2 of this Bill.

New clause 13G.—We have inserted this new clause as being purely consequential.

Clauses 14 to 21.—We are of opinion that it would not be advisable at present to interfere with the present system of appointment, election, etc., prevailing in the union boards and we have accordingly omitted Part II of the Bill altogether.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Nur Ahmed, M.L.C.

I am of opinion that the clauses 13 to 21 of the Bill should not be omitted. The principle of nomination in all union boards should be abolished. If necessary, the seats for minorities should be reserved on the population basis but the pernicious system of nomination should be done away with. There is no cogent reason why this system of nomination in union boards should be continued while nominations have been abolished in Legislative Assemblies and proposed to be abolished in the district boards and local boards. At present, as law stands, one-third of the total number of the members of a union boards, i.e., 3 out of 9, are nominated. The consequence is that it makes the elected members largely, in some cases, entirely dependent on the vote of the nominated members. Out of six elected members, if 2 join with the nominated members, they become a majority party in any union board and thus make the elected majority of 4 a minority. This farce of election is often staged and is being staged in the election of President in almost every union board. Another evil effect of this nomination or appointment of members is that the local officials from Circle Officer to District Magistrate control the free working of a union by this principle of appointment. This acts as dead weight against the smooth and responsible working of a union board. As long as this principle of appointment will be retained, the President of a union board will remain an humble and obedient servant of local demi-gods and will have to dance to their tune.

The number of district boards and local boards is limited, but village self-government is the very foundation-stone of the supreme structure of a nation's free self-government. This system of appointment in union boards is demoralising the people of the province. After every union board election the defeated candidates run to local officers concerned for appointment and leave no stone unturned to please them in order to secure the boon of appointment for them. Sometimes local officers are guided by their likes and dislikes, by their whims and caprices in their notion and do not look to the best interest of the board, with the result that sometimes very undesirable and unruly element is introduced in the board who, taking advantage of their position and evil influence, hamper the working of the board in proper and sound line to the best interest of the people of the area concerned. Even the Government officers concerned have recommended the abolition of the principle of the appointment in union boards.

I am strongly of opinion that the time has come for the doing away with this principle of appointment which is eating into the very core of a healthy nation and is obstructing the free growth and development of local self-government in our villages.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Humayun Kabir, M.L.C.

I still hold that the franchise should be extended to include at least all the adult male persons in an area, but am prepared to agree that the extra amount of work it would involve in the preparation of electoral rolls and conduct of elections makes it difficult to introduce such extended franchise during the pendency of the war.

I am confirmed in my belief that the duties of the Legislature and the local bodies have attained a volume and importance which make it impossible for the same man to do adequate justice to both. I reserve the right to press this point on the floor of the Legislature.

The majority of district officials have in the course of the last five years veered round to my view that nominations to union boards should in any case be now abolished. If the Government feel that the administrative reasons against total abolition of nomination to union boards are too strong, there should at least be a material reduction in the proportion of nominated members in such bodies. What I have said about the extension of franchise in respect of district boards applies still more strongly to union boards, but in view of the emergency conditions obtaining at present, I am prepared to waive this point for the present.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Dhirendralal Barua, M.L.C.

In writing this note of dissent I must not fail to record my sincere appreciation of the friendly spirit displayed by my colleagues on the Select Committee in discussing the draft amendment Bill, clause by clause. Each member of the Committee was freely allowed to place his point of view and we were almost sure of gaining unanimity in our opinions and suggestions. In differing from my distinguished colleagues on a minor issue, I need not be too apologetic, although I must say that I struggled against myself to be unanimous in the Committee's observations.

During the course I made it sufficiently clear that, generally speaking, I was in favour of abolition of the system of nomination and the substitution of the principle of election. The only issue, which is a vital one in so far as the Buddhists of the province are concerned, on which I found it difficult to concur in views, was the issue concerning the way of ensuring the Buddhist representation on the various bodies of local self-government by reserving certain seats for the Buddhists in those districts and sub-areas where they were found to be a recognisable element of the population. I meant the districts of Chittagong, Darjeeling, Bakarganj, Tipperah and Noakhali.

It having been pointed out to me that seats could not be reserved in the Bill itself, I pressed, in the alternative, for providing scope for special representation of the Buddhists as was done in the case of Industrial Areas.

I did not like to carry the discussion into a legal nicety as to whether or not as a Buddhist nominated member of the Upper House I had the right to be a spokesman primarily for my community. I felt that the aim of the proposed amendment Bill was to give the local self-governing institutions a truly democratic character, bereft of all official interference and official control. The modification suggested on this head is to retain certain officials as members depriving them at the same time of the power of voting and thereby making them play second fiddle.

I am opposed to any mechanical form of democracy, in which the rule of majority is granted regardless of the vital interests of different communities or sections of people. If the Bill contemplates a change, it must be a change for the better and it must aim at a harmonious progress and healthy co-operation without any detriment to the communal or sectional interest.

The present limited system of nomination in spite of its certain inherent defects, has this twofold advantage, namely, (1) that it enables the various existing boards to profit by the experiences of practical working on the part of the officials, and (2) that it leaves room for the representation of important minorities who have otherwise no chance of sending their representatives.

The Buddhists of Darjeeling district have had their representatives, if my information is correct, on the various local bodies. In the district of Chittagong, besides having a seat reserved for them in the district board, the Buddhists of the place have hitherto enjoyed the privilege of securing another seat in it through nomination. And with the enlargement of local bodies, the Buddhists of the remaining three districts may also get a good chance of representation of their interests by their own men.

I consider only that change as a change for the better, which enlarges the scope of representation of all communal and sectional interests instead of curtailing it.

My colleagues could not convince me on this point that the proposed amendment Bill dispensed with the communal question altogether. To think in terms of Muslim and non-Muslim is to think in terms of communities. Among the non-Muslims one has to reckon with the Caste Hindus, the Scheduled Castes, the Buddhists and the Christians. In the moffusil areas the Caste Hindus are by far the more influential people, and hence the rest need certain safeguards for their interests, which in my opinion, will be best secured by the reservation of certain seats, or in the alternative, by providing for special representation on the general electoral basis.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The purpose of the Bill is to do away with nomination in local bodies and also to extend the franchise to include all adult persons within the area under the control of a local body.

The reasons for such amendment are obvious. One of the purposes of Local Self-Government is to associate the people in the administration of their own affairs and thus train them in methods of Government. Nomination cuts across the principle of representation, and the system as it now obtains leads to the anomalous position in which a person in spite of the opposition of the majority of elected members in the local body may be, and often is, elected Chairman of the District Board or President of Union Board, with the help of the nominated members. This encourages ambitious and designing persons to court the favour of local officials in order to secure their position, instead of attempting to win the confidence of their electorate through useful and hard work.

With regard to the extension of franchise, it is generally admitted that the representation should be as wide as possible. All kinds of arguments are advanced against such extension in the case of the legislatures, but even these arguments concede that the franchise ought to be co-extensive with the adult population of the country. In the case of the local bodies, these arguments have hardly any force, and besides, local bodies should be treated as the training ground in which people learn to prepare themselves for the use of the franchise in the wider sphere of national affairs.

PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 11th February, 1943:—

L. A. BILL No. 6 OF 1943.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, for a certain purpose; XXI of 1923.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Merchant Shipping (Amendment) Act, 1943.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Amendment of section 209A, Act XXI of 1923.

2. In sub-section (1) of section 209A of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, after the words "together with a sum of one rupee for each day" the XXI of 1923.

words "in respect of a deck pilgrim and a sum of three rupees for each day in respect of a cabin class pilgrim" shall be inserted.

*The Governor General has been pleased to accord the previous sanction required under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 67 of the Government of India Act, as saved from repeal by paragraph 12 of the Government of India (Commencement and Transitory Provisions) Order, 1936, to the introduction of this Bill in the Legislative Assembly.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

If a pilgrim holding a return ticket is owing to his inability to obtain accommodation on a pilgrim ship detained at Jedda for a longer period than 25 days, the shipping company concerned is bound to pay under section 209A (1) of the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923, to the Central Government in respect of such pilgrim a sum of one rupee for each day after the expiry of 25 days. The time during which a pilgrim ship is prevented from sailing from Jedda due to an outbreak of an infectious disease, war disturbance, etc., is not taken into account in computing the period of 25 days. In actual practice the money due from the shipping company is realized by the British Legation, Jedda, and paid to the pilgrim concerned on the spot. A pilgrim travelling in a cabin usually pays more money in the shape of fare including the cost of food than that paid by a pilgrim who travels on a deck, but both get compensation at the same rate (i.e., one rupee per day), from the shipping company under the existing law. In view of the higher standard of living of the cabin class pilgrim the present rate of compensatory allowance is quite inadequate. It is proposed therefore, to amend the aforesaid section so as to compensate him at an increased rate of Rs. 3 per day. The rate proposed is moderate as compared with the high cost of living at Jedda.

Public Health

RESOLUTION—No. 243C./P.H.

Calcutta, the 23rd March 1943.

The Sanitary Board, Bengal, was set up under the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884. Although this Act was replaced by the Bengal Municipal Act of 1932, the Sanitary Board has been functioning as the adviser of Government in public health matters, its main function being to examine the schemes submitted by the municipal and other local authorities in accordance with the rules framed by Government for the preparation, submission and execution of water-supply, drainage and sewerage projects.

2. The Sanitary Board at present consists of seven ex-officio members and ten members nominated by Government. It is presided over by the Secretary, Public Health and Local Self-Government Department of the Government of Bengal. There is no member of the Provincial Legislature or of the local bodies on the Board nor is there any of those non-medical persons who have been taking interest in public health matters.

3. The Central Advisory Board of Health for India at its inaugural meeting held in 1937 recommended the formation of a Provincial Health Board in each province with a view to advising the Provincial Government on all public health matters and securing the co-ordination of all activities affecting public health of the province.

4. The Government of Bengal have, therefore, after careful consideration, decided that a Provincial Board of Health should be established in this province in place of the existing Sanitary Board, with an enlarged constitution having as representative a character as possible and with a widened field of activity. PART VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 11th February, 1943:—

L. A. BILL No. 4 OF 1943.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Penal Code, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; XLV of 1860.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 1943.

Amendment of section 299, Act XLV of 1860.

2. For section 299 of the Indian Penal Code (hereinafter referred to as the said Code) and Illustrations (a) and (b) to that section, the following shall be substituted, namely:— XLV of 1860.

Culpable Homicide.

"Whoever causes death by voluntarily doing an act with the knowledge that he is likely by such an act to cause death, commits the offence of culpable homicide.

Illustrations.

(a) A assaults and strikes B with a knife in the leg or some other non-vital part of the body. Death results. A has committed the offence of culpable homicide because he knows that he is likely to cause death by striking a person with a knife.

(b) A assaults and strikes B with a lathi or other blunt weapon on a non-vital part of the body. Death results. A has not committed culpable homicide because death is not likely to result from such a blow. He has committed an offence of simple or grievous hurt."

Insertion of a new section 299-A in Act XLV of 1860.

3. After section 299 of the said Code, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Punishment for culpable homicide.

"299A. Whoever commits culpable homicide shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to ten years, or with fine or with both."

Amendment of section 300, Act XLV of 1860.

4. (a) In section 300 of the said Code, the words "culpable homicide is murder" wherever they occur should be substituted by the words "culpable homicide amounting to murder".

(b) In the Exceptions to section 300 of the said Code, the words "Culpable homicide is not murder" wherever they occur should be substituted by the words "culpable homicide does not amount to murder."

Amendment of section 302, Act XLV of 1860.

5. In section 302 of the said Code, for the word "murder" the words "culpable homicide amounting to murder" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 303, Act XLV of 1860.

6. In section 303 of the said Code, for the word "murder" the words "culpable homicide amounting to murder" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 304, Act XLV of 1860.

7. In section 304 of the said Code, the paragraph beginning with the words "or with imprisonment of either descriptions....." and ending with the words "injury as is likely to cause death" shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 307, Act XLV of 1860.

8. In section 307 of the said Code, for the word "murder" the words "culpable homicide amounting to murder" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 299, I. P. C., was originally intended to define all offences which resulted in voluntary causing of death. No sentence was attached to it.

The words "with the intention of causing death or with the intention of causing such bodily injury as is likely to cause death" are reproduced and explained and amplified in section 300 as firstly, secondly and thirdly. Fourthly was intended to be equivalent in murder cases to the words "with the knowledge that he is likely by such act to cause death" in section 299.

But there is a difference between fourthly in Section 300 and the above words in Section 299 whereas there is no difference between the words "with the intention, etc." in section 299 already quoted and firstly, secondly and thirdly in section 300.

There is no difference between murder and culpable homicide not amounting to murder except for the protection afforded to the accused by the Exceptions to section 300.

A difficulty then arose, was there any offence of culpable homicide and if so, what was its punishment? A punishment was attached to it under section 304 second part. This meant that section 299 ceased to be a definition of all offences resulting in voluntary causing of death and became the definition of culpable homicide only. Consequently the first part of section 299 "with the intention, etc." became not only redundant but confusing and the Illustrations (a) and (b) have turned to be still more confusing because they are clear illustrations of murder, and there is no illustration of 'culpable homicide' as distinguished from 'murder' due to this confusion. It is not properly understood by Sessions Courts that there are three offences of voluntary causing of death (1) Culpable Homicide, (2) Culpable Homicide not amounting to murder and (3) murder. To clarify this position it is suggested that the definition of culpable homicide should be amended as follows:—

"Whoever causes death by voluntarily doing an act with the knowledge that he is likely by such act to cause death commits the offence of culpable homicide." To this should be added section 299A. "Whoever commits culpable homicide shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to 10 years or with fine or with both", i.e., the 2nd part of section 304. The Illustrations (a) and (b) to section 299 be deleted as they are illustrations of murder and in its place other illustrations given as are mentioned in the Bill. Changes suggested in other sections are merely consequential. Apart from the importance of clarifying the definitions of these three offences, injustice and waste of time arise at present because an accused is entitled to be defended by counsel if he is charged with murder and it is not always easy to obtain experienced counsel when the Sessions Judge amends a charge from culpable homicide or culpable homicide not amounting to murder to a charge of murder and this is frequently done. It is to remove this confusion and consequent difficulties in the trial of cases that this Bill is introduced.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 11th February, 1943:—

L. A. BILL No. 5 OF 1943.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; V of 1898.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and commencement

1. (1) This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1943.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Amendment of section 378, Act V of 1898.

2. To section 378 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as the said Code), the following proviso shall be added, namely:— V of 1898.

"Provided that the case will not be so laid before another Judge, if the only difference of opinion between the Judges is about the giving of the benefit of doubt to the accused, and the accused shall be acquitted."

Amendment of section 429, Act V of 1898.

3. To section 429 of the said Code the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that the case will not be so laid before another Judge, if the only difference of opinion between the Judges is about the giving of the benefit of doubt to the accused, and the accused shall be acquitted."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The question of weighing evidence and coming to a definite conclusion on the basis of the evidence especially oral evidence is a difficult matter. No cut and dried principles can be laid down for the purpose. No definite standards can be prescribed and the only thing that we can lay down, can be that only such conclusions are to be accepted as appeal to a reasonable mind. In the administration of Criminal Law, it is a well established principle that benefit of doubt should be given to the accused. In practice when a case is tried by a Magistrate or a Judge, or is heard in appeal, and such a Magistrate or Judge feels that there is some reasonable doubt about the guilt of the accused, he can give him the benefit of doubt. But a rather different position is provided by the present Code when the case is heard by a Bench of the High Court Judges. It cannot be doubted that in respect of experience and maturity of thought and reason, the Judges of the High Court stand generally at a higher level than the other comparatively less experienced Magistrates and Judges. Persons holding the posts of High Court Judges reach those places by a process of selection either from services or from legal profession which guarantees a high standard of legal knowledge, common sense and reasonableness of mind. When two or more Judges hear an appeal they have got a further advantage of being in a position to have a free exchange of views amongst themselves—a privilege not enjoyed by Magistrates or Sessions Judges. So if a Judge with this backing and advantages entertains a doubt about the guilt of the accused, we can unhesitatingly say that it is a reasonable doubt. It is for this purpose that I am moving this amendment. When one of the two High Court Judges hearing an appeal is of the opinion that the guilt of the accused has not been fully proved, then it must be considered to be a view worthy of consideration.' Recently in a case the Honourable the Chief Justice of the Allahabad High Court observed:

"It is a fundamental principle underlying the administration of criminal justice that an accused person is entitled to the benefit of doubt as to his guilt. The doubt, however, must be doubt of a reasonable mind. If a criminal case is being heard by a bench of two judges of His Majesty's Court of Justice and if one of the judges entertains doubt about the guilt of an accused person, I should think that there should be no escape from the conclusion that the doubt of the judge concerned is the doubt of a reasonable mind. I therefore consider that it is about time that the legislature should lay down that in the event of difference of opinion between a bench of two judges of High Court the opinion of the judge acquitting the accused person must prevail and in such a case a reference to a third judge is unnecessary." (Mula and others vs. K. E. reported in Leader dated 3rd October, 1942.) In an earlier case Kazeem Thakoor and others vs. K. E. (10 Southerlands Weekly reporters criminal page 45) a full bench of five judges of the Allahabad High Court held that "where a difference of opinion arises between two judges of the High Court in a criminal appeal the opinion of a senior judge prevails, under section 36 of the Letters Patent, notwithstanding section 420 of the Code of Criminal Procedure".—That case of course was decided on the interpretation of a clause of the Letters Patent which no longer exists on the statute book, but I refer to it only to show that a practice different from the present practice was at a time recognized by the statute and there is no harm likely to result if on the basis of recognised principles we change the present practice.

The following Bill* was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 16th February, 1943:—

L. A. BILL No. 8 OF 1943.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code, and to amend the Currency Ordinance, 1940.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Penal Code, and to amend the Currency Ordinance, 1940, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; XLV of 1860. IV of 1940.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 1943.

Insertion of new section 489E in Act XLV of 1860. 2. In Chapter XVIII of the Indian Penal Code, after section 489D the following section shall be inserted, namely:— XLV of 1860.

*The Governor General has been pleased to give the previous sanction required by section 108(1)(b) of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the introduction in the Legislative Assembly of this Bill.

Making or using documents resembling currency-notes or bank-notes.

"489E. (1) Whoever makes, or causes to be made, or uses for any purpose whatsoever, or delivers to any person, any document purporting to be, or in any way resembling, or so nearly resembling as to be calculated to deceive, any currency-note or bank-note shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(2) If any person, whose name appears on a document the making of which is an offence under sub-section (1), refuses, without lawful excuse, to disclose to a police-officer on being so required the name and address of the person by whom it was printed or otherwise made, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

(3) Where the name of any person appears on any document in respect of which any person is charged with an offence under sub-section (1) or on any other document used or distributed in connection with that document it may, until the contrary is proved, be presumed that that person caused the document to be made."

Amendment of section 4, Ord. IV of 1940.

3. In section 4 of the Currency Ordinance, 1940, for the word, figures and letter "and 489D" the words, figures and letters "489D and 489E" shall be substituted. IV of 1940.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Photoprints and other reproductions of currency-notes and bank-notes, though printed for innocent purposes, have passed into circulation in a number of cases and it is considered undesirable that in a country like India with a large mass of illiterate and ignorant persons such reproductions should be permitted to go unchecked before it menaces the safety of the currency. It is proposed, therefore, to put a stop to this practice by making it a punishable offence.

2. While the counterfeiting of any currency-note or bank-note constitutes a criminal offence under section 489A read with section 28 of the Indian Penal Code, there is no legal provision prohibiting the reproduction, or the production of imitations, of currency and bank-notes for such purposes as advertisement and the like where there is no intention to practise deception on any one, nor even a knowledge that deception is likely to be practised with the help of imitations. The Bill is designed to fill this lacuna in the present law.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 22nd February, 1943:—

L. A. BILL No. 10 OF 1943.

A Bill further to amend the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; XL of 1920.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Aligarh Muslim University (Amendment) Act, 1943.

Amendment of section 29, Act XL of 1920.

2. In clause (k) of section 29 of the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the word "Intermediate" shall be omitted, XL of 1920.

Amendment of section 30, Act XL of 1920.

3. To sub-section (3) of section 30 of the said Act the following provisoes shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that until the termination of the hostilities arising on and subsequently to the 3rd day of September, 1939, a new Ordinance, or an amendment or repeal of an existing Ordinance, occasioned by an emergency having its origin in conditions due to the said hostilities, shall have validity if submitted by the Executive Council or the Academic Council, as the case may be, direct to the Central Government, and approved by the latter:

Provided further that any new Ordinance or amendment or repeal of an existing Ordinance made under the provisions of the foregoing proviso shall cease to have validity on the expiration of one year from the date on which the said hostilities terminate."

Amendment of section 33, Act XL of 1920.

4. In sub-section (2) of section 33 of the said Act, for the words "a member or a teacher of" the words "a teacher of or a person holding paid employment under" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The amendment made by clause 2 of the Bill in section 29 of the Aligarh Muslim University Act, 1920 (XL of 1920), is a consequential amendment rendered necessary by the passing of Act XVII of 1941 and overlooked at the time that that Act was passed.

The addition made to sub-section (3) of section 30 of the parent Act is considered necessary with a view to enable the University to modify its Ordinances expeditiously and provide special courses of study for students who wish to join the fighting forces.

The intention of sub-section (2) of section 33 of the parent Act appears to be that for each subject of a degree examination there should be at least one independent examiner as distinguished from the teachers and paid employees of the University. The expression "member of the University", which is omitted from the sub-section by the amendment now made, is not defined in the Act and has been found in practice difficult to interpret.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

Directorate of Civil Supplies, Bengal.

PRESS NOTE.

No. 3696D.C.S.—15th March 1943.—The maximum controlled prices of Soft (Domestic) Coke are revised as follows:—

Ex-Railway depots—Re. 1 per maund.
Ex-City depots—Re. 1-6 per maund.

It has now been decided to control the price of Hard Coke and Steam Coal as well. These are fixed as follows:—

	Hard Coke. Rs. a. p.	Steam Coal. Rs. a. p.
Ex-Railway depots ...	1 6 0	0 14 0
Ex-City Depots ...	1 12 0	1 4 0

The above prices will be enforced by denying supplies to those who sell above these rates and by prosecution wherever possible.

Allegations have lately appeared in the Press of "muddle" and selection of "new" dealers by the Directorate. The results of the Directorate's policy are before the public and in themselves provide the necessary answer. The measures adopted by the Directorate have succeeded in restoring something like order in the trade and coal is now generally available in Calcutta at, in some parts even below, the controlled rates. Within the limits of transport available for civilian needs, the Directorate aims at making coal available in Calcutta and the districts as freely and as cheaply as possible and will continue to take such steps as may be necessary to achieve this end irrespective of the interests affected.

T. Roxburgh,
Director of Civil Supplies, Bengal.
